What types of parlay cards are available?

Delaware Sports Lottery offers the following parlay cards:

Early Bird card

The Early Bird parlay card may be played daily throughout the preseason and on Mondays and Tuesdays during the regular season. To play an Early Bird card, refer to the designated separate sheet for teams and point spreads. A new sheet will be available each Monday and Tuesday. The payoffs are the same as with the Half-Point card.

Half-Point card

The Half-Point parlay card is the most popular card in Las Vegas, and will offer payoffs ranging from 6.5 for 1 on a 3-team parlay to 2,500 for 1 on a 12-team parlay. All point spreads use half-points, eliminating the possibility of a tie.

Teaser card

On a Teaser card, the point spreads differ from those on the Half-Point card. The favored teams have to cover fewer points in order to be winning selections. The underdog teams receive more points. The payoffs on the Teaser card are lower than they are on the Half-Point card because of the advantage the player gets on the point spread. On a Teaser card, players may parlay from 3 to 20 teams and receive payoffs ranging from 12 for 5 to 1,000 for 1. All point spreads use half-points, eliminating the possibility of a tie. Players may bet on both sides.

Super Teaser card

On the Super Teaser card, the point spreads are adjusted even more than with the Teaser card. The favored teams must cover even fewer points in order to be winning selections. The underdog teams receive more points. The payoffs on the Super Teaser card are lower than they are on the Teaser cards because of the additional advantage the player gets on the point spread. On a Super Teaser card, players may parlay from 4 to 20 teams and receive payoffs ranging from 11 for 5 to 80 for 1. All point spreads use half-points, eliminating the possibility of a tie. Players may bet on both sides.

HOW TO PLAY

What's a parlay card?

A parlay is a single wager that links multiple wagers; to win the bet, the player must win all the wagers in the parlay. If the player loses one wager, (s)he loses the entire bet. However, if the player wins all the wagers in the parlay, he or she wins a higher payoff than if he had placed the bets separately.

What are the odds?

On parlay cards, the odds are fixed. Please see the back of the parlay cards for more information.

Please Note:

"For" includes the amount wagered.
"To" does not include the amount wagered.
For example: 20 for 1 is 19 to 1; a $25 wager is $25x19=$475

What's the minimum wager?

The minimum wager is $2.

What is the 3-Game Rule?

There is a minimum of 3 games in action (Three separate distinct outcomes).

Where and when can I get my parlay cards?

Parlay cards are available on Wednesdays at all Sports Lottery locations. For a complete list of Sports Lottery locations, visit delottery.com.

The lines for each week's coming games are posted every Monday at the Sportsbooks* (racetracks) and Sports Lottery Retailers. OFF-THE-BOARD PARLAY wagers may be made all week long.

Tickets go as written. Please check your ticket(s) for accuracy before leaving the wagering counter.

Complete your cards with a blue or black pen, or a pencil. No red ink, please. DO NOT ERASE. Remove the perforated stub from the card prior to presenting to the sports terminal operator.

Wagers are accepted until the kickoff of a scheduled game. Tickets go as written. Please check your ticket(s) for accuracy before leaving the Sports Lottery terminal.

Delaware Sports Lottery offers the following parlay cards:

Reverse Teaser card

On the Reverse Teaser card, the point spreads are adjusted so the favored teams must cover a larger point spread and underdog teams must cover a point spread that is smaller, and, in some cases, even minus points. In some cases, both teams in a game may be minus points and you may not bet both teams in that game. Because of these point-spread adjustments, the payoffs are much higher than those found on the other teaser cards. On a Reverse Teaser card, players may parlay from 3 to 8 teams and receive payoffs ranging from 20 for 1 to 5,000 for 1. All point spreads use half-points, eliminating the possibility of a tie.

$100,000 Parlay card

Players wager $5 and select 15 games against the point spread. If a player correctly picks 15 out of 15 games, he wins $100,000. If there is more than 1 winning ticket, the $100,000 prize is divided equally among the winning tickets. The $100,000 Parlay card will have a few select Totals (Over/Under) Wagers upon occasion.

Pro Football Championship Futures

No card required. Players may wager on any or all of the 32 pro football teams to win the CHAMPIONSHIP GAME. This wager is offered for the entire current season. To place a bet, the player simply selects a team. The odds fluctuate during the season, but are locked in at the time the wager is placed. For a team to win the championship game, it must win three games—at least two playoff games and the Championship game. A new sheet is provided each week.

Totals (Over/Under) Wager

The Total is the combined amount of points scored by both teams during the game, including overtime. A player may wager over or under the total. In an Over Wager, the player wagers that the total combined points scored by the two teams will be more than the total. In an Under Wager, the player bets that the total points scored by the two teams will be less than the total. There will be no totals during the preseason.

The Half-Point, Teaser and Super Teaser parlay cards will carry all totals. The $100,000 parlay card will have select totals on occasion. There is no Totals-Only card.

Note: The Delaware Lottery reserves the right to refuse any wager/multiple cards or delete or limit any selection(s) prior to the acceptance of any wager.

Off-the-Board Wagers (lines change frequently throughout the day, so make sure you check your tickets.)

• Off-the-Board Parlays

In Off-the-Board Parlays, the point spreads may fluctuate from the opening line. Players can parlay from 3 to 8 teams and receive payoffs ranging from 6 to 1 to 160 to 1. There is a $5 minimum bet on Off-the-Board Parlays.

• Off-the-Board Teasers

The players can select 6-, 6½-, 7- and 10-point Teasers. A Teaser allows the player to add extra points to an underdog's point spread or subtract points on a favored team.

• Halftime Wagers

For Halftime wagers, point spreads apply to the final score of the game and not to second-half scoring alone.

*The Delaware Lottery Sportsbook locations are Delaware Park, Dover Downs and Harrington Raceway & Casino.

Delaware Lottery Sportsbook and Sports Lottery Retailer Wagering Rules apply to parlay cards unless otherwise stipulated on the cards. The Delaware Lottery reserves the right to add, delete or change its Wagering Rules or payoff odds at any time or both.
